These people are a vital part of our school life, although few of us stop to realize their importance. Have you ever considered what school would be like without efficient office help, lunch in the cafeteria, a clean building and all of the repairs that are made? We would like to express our appreciation to the school employees for a job well done.

Graduates 59

When we entered High School in September, 1955, little did we know how eventful the next four years of our lives would be. Our freshman year was highlighted by many activities, among them the Basketball Homecoming, a new custom for Bunker Hill that year.

Every member was kept busy for the duration of our junior year. First, the Junior Play, "Stranger In The Night," was rehearsed and presented with much success. The usual sports events occupied us during a great part of the time, but we began big plans for the Junior-Senior Banquet in the spring. Plans were made, changed, and then made over many times before the date of the banquet. Wanting to add our own touch to the event, we had a Prom after the banquet. With all preparations ready we enjoyed the evening in a "Sea Fantasy."

The day we thought would never come finally arrived--we became Seniors. We continued having bake sales, candy sales, and other money-making projects as we had during the three previous years. This was directed to fulfilling the dream willed to us by the class of 1956; to go to Washington, D. C. We have worked, but we have had much pleasure in doing the things we had to do to reach our goals. Now we are proud of our achievements: our graduation from B.H.H.S. and our trip to Washington.

Seniors

CAROL ALDERSON
If she can't find anything to laugh about she'll giggle

GARY BLAND
Another car passed him once--a police

Prophecy

It is late in May in the year 1984, almost 25 years to the day that 26 seniors walked through the doors of B. H. H. S. with diploma in hand ready to seek their fortunes. Now they are coming back to Bunker Hill for a reunion. Of course, the thought running through everyone's mind is--I haven't changed, but what will the others be like. The anticipation is soon to be over because PEARL SCHREIBER has just arranged the last flower and is awaiting the guests at Pearl's Palace, the state's most luxurious supper club, located on a slope overlooking the beautiful Bunker Hill Reservoir.

RONNIE MORRIS has canceled his engagement at the Astor Hotel in New York in order to bring his 150 piece all girl orchestra to the gala occasion. Ronnie married one of his trombone players and now they are making beautiful music together.

GEORGE HESS is the first to arrive. George is a very successful physician, but he looks a little tired. Little wonder--he has delivered 10,000 babies. He is now working on a complicated formula for instant people.

DORIS FENSTERMAN drives up in a Cadillac (all people from Texas drive Cadillacs). Doris got her start in an odd way. She read somewhere that if you plant a feather, you can grow a chicken. Sure enough, that's what happened. Now she has millions of chickens.

Who could be far behind Doris but SHIRLEY BUTLER. Shirley has a very responsible position with the Blow Big Bubbles Corporation. She is chief bubble gum tester.

GARY BLAND drives silently up in his 1960 Rolls-Royce. Yes, Gary is a changed person. Here he is driving a 24 year old car which has 999,000 miles on it and the original set of tires. Gary doesn't have to be a hot-rodder anymore because he gets his kicks out of sliding through the oleo that is dropped on the floor of his oleo factory.

JUDY KAMPWERTH is the next to arrive. No, Judy didn't marry Ed Brown as everyone expected, but instead, has made a name for herself in the labor industry. She works for the Michigan Cherry Pickers Association and is in charge of all delinquent cherry pickers. Her big problem at the moment is to figure out a way to get the workers to hang by their nose so they can pick with both hands.

There's a friendly fellow. Ole hand shaking, back slapping Congressman BILLY WOOD. Of course, he's here for the party, but he's doing a little politicking on the side. He is trying to get backers for his latest bill--build a mile high wall around Illinois to keep the California smog out.

DAVE DUBBELDE has made tracks with his long foot and short hand. He is personal secretary to Mrs. Picklesimer of the Picklesimer Precious Pickle Plant. Dave can be considered prosperous, considering the fact that he gets paid with pickles.

CAROL ALDERSON isn't really making an entrance with a new rock and roll step. Carol has an occupational disease. She moved to California after graduating and has been chief grape stomper for the wine makers ever since.

MALCHUS BAKER comes laden with autographed books for everyone. He is publisher of the Spook, Spook, and Sadie Garfinkel Corp. His best sellers are comic books for high school students and books from the Trail of the Tingling Spine series. Everyone wants to find out more about Sadie, but Malchus isn't talking.

Everyone's mouth drops a little as HELEN JOHNSON makes an effected entrance in a black jacket and high heel tennis shoes. Helen became a teacher as planned, but found the life too quiet and subdued. She is now squadron leader of the Black Jacket Motorcycle Gang.

This couldn't be a member of the class. Yes, it is! JIM NEEL with a beard to his knees. Instead of seeking his fortune out in the world, he has brought the world to him. Jim is producer, director and star of the annual Passion Play in Bloomington.

JEANETTE ENKE limps in. She is recovering after being gored by a bull while fighting in Spain. Jeanette got a thundering ovation for that fight. After being wounded, showman that she is, got up, fought the 4,000 lb. animal bare handed and emerged victorious. That's throwing a lot of bull.

Everyone knew it was DENNIS HUNT when they saw the State Police car roaring in with red lights flashing and sirens blowing. He worked himself up through the ranks from garbage collector to General of Police. Dennis grew with his job. He is down to a mere 375 lbs., but he's been sick. He became a national hero for his outstanding work on the Cracked Piggy Bank case.

JUNE RENEAU has made a cool million in the sporting goods business. She manufactures flexible one fingered bowling balls. The hole in that ball is so flexible that you can stretch it over your head and wear the ball as a hat. In a pinch, it can even be used as a spare tire.

BILL RAYMOND has become indispensable to the medical profession through his inventions and discoveries. His mechanical back scratcher has been an invaluable aid to people with short arms. He has just received the Nobel Prize for his machine--the Burp Catcher. This is expected to bring relief to thousands of belchers.

SHARON MYERS just flew in from New York where she is the top recording star of the country. Her latest record, "My Pillow's All Wet From Tears Running Down My Cheeks While Lying On My Back Crying Over You Blues," just missed getting a gold record. As a consolation prize she received a pound of putty and a bucket of hog livers.

RAY CHAPMAN has practically stopped time. The calendar makers have gone out of business since Ray retired from the pin-up photography business. It was just last year that Ray laid his eyes on their last leg.

JACK MOULTON, the world traveler and big game hunter, is a bit perturbed over his $11.40 fare to Bunker Hill. The rickshaw runner gave him the business by taking the long way through India. Jack's most harrowing experience happened in Africa when he had to rush out of his tent and shoot a wild elephant in his pajamas. How the elephant got in his pajamas, no one will ever know. Getting the tusks off was quite a problem.

ERNIE JARMAN was a famous TV announcer until he made his prize faux pas, "Have you tried Buppert's Reer." Now he spends his time looking for dinosaur tracks and climbing mountains in his top hat, cut-a-way and 2 toned spots.

JUDY EDEN made her famous expedition to the Artic Circle in 1970. Here, it was love at first sight and the beginning of a long happy marriage for Judy and the Abominable Snowman. Mr. Abominable couldn't attend tonight--he's home in the deep freeze. In the winter they operate a peanut stand at Skunk Hollow.

CHARLES VAUGHN just flew his rocket in for a landing. He is the only member of the class who got into space. He is stationed on the planet Mercury. His work is top secret, but word from the grapevine says he is bringing back samples for thermometers.

ORLAND SNEDEKER'S first book, "Fun In An Undertaking Parlor" was a smash hit. The public is eagerly awaiting his second book, "The Isothermal Transformation Of Austenite In Molybdenum Steels" to come off the press. If you can't get a copy--wait--it's going to be made into a movie next year.

ED SCROGGINS got snapped into orbit when he started dating Ray's pin-up girls. He is known as the suspender snapping man about town now. He can afford his frivolous activities by virtue of being the president of the Malipoofsky Dog Biscuit Co. Ed was instrumental in perfecting a dog biscuit which tastes just like a mail carrier's ankle.

EVA GOEBEL is back in the states for the first time in 25 years and just because of the reunion. She hasn't changed much in looks, but oh, that costume--a genuine psuedo leopard skin sack, a witch doctor's head piece, and a pet leopard on a diamond studded leash. You can't buy the latest fashions in deepest Africa. She is affectionately known as "Great White Mother" among the Wambutti Bug-A-Boo pygmies, to whom she has devoted her life. Eva has taught them cheerleading and in return they have taught her to be the hottest bongo drums beater in all Africa. Too bad she can't stay longer than the night, but she fears that the natives will become restless without her.

After an evening of exchanging tall tales and wild experiences, the 25 year reunion comes to a close. Never before and probably never again will Bunker Hill see such an array of varied occupations and talent as assembled by this class of '59.

"A TRIBUTE TO THE SENIORS"

by

Ken Jenkins

For the class of fifty-nine,
A class that's really fine,
I tried to write a poem,
But I couldn't write a line.
I couldn't find the word
That best describes their zeal,
I couldn't tell about their trip,
It didn't seem quite real,
And then it came to me one night,
Just like I knew it would,
And I wrote this poem about their trip,
I knew I surely should.

They all worked hard, to aid the cause,
To make this trip exist,
And only one was made to stay,
Her name scratched off the list.
They worked together, hard and fast,
To make the dough roll in,
So much against them, yet I know
They'd do it all again.
Washington was the goal they set,
For not a class had been there yet.

They made it their life,
And yet not all,
They kept up their studies
Spring, Winter, and Fall.
They sacrificed
Gave all they could,
It took all they had,
As they knew it would.
Oh, they're still not there,
But yet so near.

Everything's ready,
They've nothing to fear.
We think of them
And the goal they seek
Comes first to mind,
As an exciting peak.
A peak of joy
and pride to them,
A peak in life,
To each of them.

Last Will and Testament

We, the Seniors of '59 being of sound mind and body do will these different slams, abilities, traits and characteristics to these underclassmen and teachers in the hopes that the said party will become as dignified and as honorable as the seniors of '59.

I, CAROL ALDERSON, will my ability to giggle hysterically at my own jokes in class to any freshman who thinks he can control it. I also will my nickname, 'Rodan,' to Martha Foreman, who gave it to me in the first place.

I, MALCHUS BAKER, will my natural colored hair to Joan Wadsworth.

I, GARY BLAND, will my ability to hit bridges to the richest person in B. H. H. S.

I, SHIRLEY BUTLER, will my ability to get along so well with Mrs. Lavis to Dorothy Jouett. I also will my long fingernails to Mary Hess.

I, RAY CHAPMAN, will my ability to study and make average grades to John Smalley. I hope you will be able to make the transition without too much trouble, John.

I, DAVID DUBBELDE will my shorthand book to 'Nubbs' Nee, who will probably be back next year.

I, JUDY EDEN, do hereby will and bequeath my natural red hair to Miss Murphy.

I, JEANETTE ENKE, will my natural curly hair to Leslie (Lilly) Jenkins because the senior girls think she needs it. Be sure to take care of it "Lilly."

I, DORIS FENSTERMAN, will my ability to freely express my opinion in certain classes and to certain people and still graduate to any timid underclassman who will use it.

I, EVA GOEBEL, will my ability to successfully become a brunette after being a blonde to anyone who is now a blonde. How's that Joanie?

I, GEORGE HESS, being able to get along with little girls (grade school girls) and big girls (teachers) but being shy around high school girls, do hereby will my "girl shyness" to Leslie Jenkins.

I, DENNIS HUNT, being of sound mind and body, will my everlasting (?) to anybody who wants it.

I, EARNEST JARMAN, will my ability to be a fool at the wrong time to any fool who wants it.

I, HELEN JOHNSON, will my ability to talk my way into and out of any and everything to 'Tiger' Bruckert.

I, JUDY KAMPWERTH, will my job of delivering bulletins to Iona Schreier. I also will a pair of my old glasses to Keith Knibb.

I, RONNIE MORRIS, being exceedingly conceited, will not give up anything.

I, JACK MOULTON, will my ability to take vitamin pills to Jim Jouett. Hope you put it to good use, Jim!

I, SHARON MYERS, will my Hula-Hoop ability to Mr. Summers in hopes he can use it wisely in his future years at B. H. H. S. Keep practicing Mr. Summers. You know the old saying, 'If at first you don't succeed, try, try again.'

I, JIM NEEL, in a capable and sound mind??, hereby will and bequeath my ability of washing eggs off of Mr. Bayersachs' house to any fool who thinks they can throw eggs and get away with it.

I, BILL RAYMOND, will my ability to spell to anyone who needs it. If you took this, you would be in pretty bad shape.

I, JUNE RENEAU, do hereby will my ability to tell fortunes and believe in superstitions to Joyce Dorsch.

I, PEARL SCHREIBER, will my ability to get along with teachers to one of the Bobsie twins, Karen Welch.

I, ED SCROGGINS, will my old beat-up basketball shoes to the athletic department of B. H. H. S.

I, ORLAND SNEDEKER, will my nickname "Snake" to Peggy Snedeker.

I, CHARLES VAUGHN, will my goodness to Richard Butler.

I, BILL WOOD, will my supply of slings and casts to anybody who needs them.

We, the class of 1959, do solemnly declare this to be our legal Will and Testament made this sixteenth day of May, in the year of our Lord nineteen hundred and fifty-nine in the city of Bunker Hill, county of Macoupin, state of Illinois.

We the class of 1960 wish to take you back through our three years at B. H. H. S. The highlight of our freshman year was our Caypso party. Considering the fact that it was our first attempt at high school entertaining, the party was quite a success.

During our sophomore year we gave the Valentine party. The Sweetheart Queen and King, Mary Lou Pullen and Kenny File, were elected from our class. We were also busy during the basketball season working for our queen candidate and decorating the gym for Homecoming.

This year, we now can say with great pride, we are Juniors. This has been our busiest and most exciting year. Our goal from the start of the year was the Junior-Senior Banquet. To finance this project we had candy sales, bake sales, and on February 19th the Junior Play, "Molly O'Shaughnessy," was presented. For the Junior class school party, given in honor of the seniors, Bob Klock's band from Gillespie furnished the music for the formal dance. On May 16th we found that our banquet, with the theme 'Rock-A-Bye-Baby,' was well worth our efforts.

As this year comes to a close and the summer lies ahead, we have only to look at our class ring to be reminded that next year we will be seniors.

Sophomores

After a few weeks of orientation in high school our freshman class busily engaged themselves in the usual high school activities. Janice Musgrove was elected president; Ross Myers, vice-president; Terry Landreth, treasurer; and Pat Keller, secretary. At the climax of the basketball season, Janet Weese was selected as freshman candidate for Homecoming Queen with Richard Diestelhorst as her escort. One of the social highlights of the year was the freshman party.

After a busy summer, no one was sorry that school would be in session again. As sophomores, everyone returned with more confidence and experience. To get things under way we elected these class officers: president, Richard Dubbelde; vice-president, Pat Keller; treasurer, Carol Mahoney; and secretary, Janet Weese. For our annual all school party we sponsored a backwards party. When Homecoming time rolled around, our class chose Deanna Dey as queen candidate and Leslie Jenkins as escort.

As we leave another year behind us, we are truly looking forward to the day when we will be looked upon as upperclassmen.

Freshmen

In September 1958 we entered high school. Many of us thought it wonderful, while others thought of it as just another year of school. On September 16th we elected class officers which were as follows: president, Eddie Musgrove; vice-president, Janet Buhs; secretary, Karen Wood; and treasurer, Helena Bort. Our class sponsors were Miss Murphy and Miss Stone.

Our first big project was Homecoming. The gym decorating committee spent many hours in preparation for the big event, but to no avail. At least, we can be guided by experience next year. Carolyn Fahrenkrog was our choice for Homecoming Queen candidate with Steve Behrens as her escort.

Many of the freshman boys and girls participated in the sports activities. In spite of our lack of experience in high school competition, we contributed to or brought home several victories in inter-scholastic and intramural sports.

Our school entertaining for the year was limited to a Sadie Hawkins dance given on March 6th in the P. T. A. room.

As this school year comes to an end, it also marks the end of our "green freshmen"

Basketball

The B team had a record of 7 wins and 13 losses. They were victorious over Brussels, Hardin, Aviston twice, St. Paul, and Livingston twice. We hope there will be some additions to next year's A squad from this team.

Basketball Player Of The Year

Bill Scroggins, Kenny Jenkins, Armond Welch, Dennis Hunt, Jim Fiehl, Jack Moulton, Ed Scroggins

Ed and Bill Scroggins were two of our most valuable track team members this year. Bill went to the State track meet after qualifying for the 220 yard dash at the District meet at Palmyra. The school is very proud of these boys.

Track

The Cross Country and Track teams were far above average this year considering the competition they faced. The Cross Country team won the Bellville Invitational meet, while the Track team brought home a second place trophy from the County meet at Carlinsville and were third out of seventeen teams entered in the Roodhouse Relays.

CHRISTMAS CONCERT

The band and chorus, under the very capable direction of Mr. Kenneth Conrady, have presented several entertaining and listenable concerts this year. The performances of the chorus have included an Easter concert of religious music, excerpts from "South Pacific," and a modified version of the Broadway musical "Oklahoma." The band and chorus combined their talents for the formal Christmas concert.

BOYS' CHORUS

The past year for the Bunker Hill Chapter of the F. F. A. has been a good one. Among the many events were judging contests, training schools, and fishing trips.

F. F. A.

The incoming officers attended a Leadership Training School at Carrollton in September. The Section 15 Soil Judging Contest was held at Bunker Hill this year. The contest area was the Joe Johnson farm. Approximately 100 agriculture students participated in the contest. Bill Bain, of our Chapter, won the high individual score. We also won the High School Team score. We placed ninth out of thirty-seven schools that attended the Livestock Judging Contest at Southern Illinois University.

Mr. Leland Ashby, our advisor, resigned February 1 to accept a position in Arizona. Mr. Russell Riggs filled the vacancy for the remainder of the year.

Mrs. Levis presented Doris Fensterman with the Betty Crocker Future Homemaker of This Year Award.

F. H. A.

The Bunker Hill Chapter of the F. H. A. under the leadership of Janet Weese as president, Donna Fensterman, vice-president, Carol Mahoney, secretary, and Janice Stone, treasurer, had a busy and prosperous year.

We began our year with an F. H. A. District rally held at Benld. Then we gave a Halloween party for the high school. Our next social function was our annual Christmas party and gift exchange. The big event for our new members was the candlelight initiation service. It was a very impressive ceremony during which the creed is repeated and the F. H. A. song is sung.

Early in the spring, the annual District officer's meeting was held at White Hall. There were eight members from our high school who attended this meeting.

G. A. A.

The gym was the scene of many exciting contests for the girls of B. H. H. S. who participated in the noon-time intramurals. Only class tournaments were held this year. The juniors emerged victorious in soccer, while the seniors were the undisputed champions in volleyball, winning all of their games. The play-off, between the juniors and seniors, for the basketball title was played before an assembly of the student body. In an overtime period the seniors captured the title by a scant 1 point.

Homecoming

The Basketball Homecoming was not only competition between schools in the game, but also competition between classes. Each class was given a section of the gym wall which they decorated using a homecoming theme. Each class also selected a candidate for Homecoming Queen.

The night of the game an award was given to the senior class for the best decoration as decided by a panel of judges. Votes for queen candidates were one cent each, the proceeds of which were to be used in the athletic department. The votes were counted and Carol Alderson was crowned Homecoming Queen by Mayor James Hazelrigg.
